The Hoosick Falls / Tamarac defense has been nothing short of spectacular this season. With four regular season games played, the defense has given up 11 points. The offense has been firing on all cylinders too, putting up at least 33 points in every game so far. The team has one more regular season game to play, then two post season games. ‘Cats Maul Indians, 45-3

by Steve Bradley

In a game under the lights on Friday, April 9 at the Cossackie-Athens field, it took a while for the Hoosick Falls / Tamarac Wildcats to get rolling but once the engine got warmed up, Cox-sackie-Athens got steamrolled.

A 41-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Michael D’Agostino to Dylan Baker in the first quarter was the only score the ‘Cats could get on the board in the first half. Mistakes played a big part with fumbles and interceptions in the second quarter, including a goal line (very questionable call) fumble, keeping the Wildcats from scoring when the opportunity presented itself.

They made up for it in the third quarter by marching up and

Berlin/New Lebanon XC Teams Excel in Duel Meet

Submitted by Eric Viner

The Berlin-New Lebanon Girls Cross Country team competes on Tuesday at GLSP.

Berlin-New Lebanon XC teams participated in a duel meet at Grafton Lakes State Park on Tuesday, April 13 between Greenwich, Tamarac-Hoosick Falls and Stillwater. The Berlin Girls were led by Elsie Corbett and Allura Meizinger. Sadie Giumara, Brady Hills and Haley Beckwith ran strong and helped secure the win for BNL against Tamarac-Hoosick Falls 15-40. This race also featured Addison Powell in her first race representing BNL, finishing the race under the 30 minute mark. Way to go girls!

The Berlin-New Lebanon Boys Cross Country team starts the race in a pack, also at GLSP on Tuesday. Both photos by Doug Hills.

BNL boys ran a fantastic race as well, with Matt Kluck leading the entire pack and securing a 1st place finish for the first time this season. Michael Laughlin, Addison Van Dyk, Layne Chaykowski-Jewitt and Carl Truax ran hard and finished strong. Eben Donohue, in his first race for BNL, had a 9th place finish and helped Berlin New Lebanon take the win with a close score of 27-28. Great race boys!
