Cambridge Historical Society Plant Sale

On Friday and Saturday, May 14 and 15, the Cambridge Historical Society and Museum will once again sponsor a huge plant sale from 9 am to 5 pm each day. The sale will take place at the greenhouse and parking lot of Coral's Corner and Cones, 35 Park Street (Route 22) in Cambridge. All plants have been grown locally by Coral's Corner and well known gardener Al Rapp. Included will be many varieties of flowering annuals, perennials, hanging plants and vegetables.

The Museum is happy to once again be able to hold events like this, after more than a year of shutdown because of the COVID-19 pandemic. We hope many of our friends and neighbors will support the Museum and go home with some beautiful healthy plants to enjoy in their garden.

The Cambridge Valley Fine Art Tour

The Tour and Sale will take place on Saturday May 22 and Sunday May 23 from 11 am to 4 pm on both days. This is a self-guided tour where art lovers and the curious have the opportunity to visit each artist's home or studio to view their art work, which will be for sale.

George Van Hook's plein air. Van Hook is one of the five artists whose work will be on display. Photo provided.

This year there will be five participating painters who work in oils or watercolors using various techniques, styles and approaches. Three of the artist (Kelly, Van Hook and Tougas) will have much of their work outdoors in the yard (weather permitting) in addition to having their studios open.
